

1798 DEFENCE FUND

CONTRIBUTORS

In 1798, faced with the threat of an invasion by the French, the parishioners of Fordyce made contributions to a fund to be used for the defence of their country. The names of each contributor and the amount of their donation were recorded in the Fordyce Kirk Session Register (National Archives of Scotland Ref: CH2-1114-4). A separate list was compiled for donations from the inhabitants of Portsoy.

This is a verbatim transcription of the pages of the Kirk Session Register, with names reproduced as in the original.

In the year seventeen hundred and ninety eight when Great Britain was threatened with an Invasion by the French Republic The Inhabitants of that Part of the Parish of Fordyce which is without Portsoy District in the Course of two Weeks paid into the Hands of the Minister the following Sums under the following Conditions viz – We whose Names are hereto subjoined as a Proof of our Love to our Constitution, our Country and our King, have agreed to pay in to the Minister of Fordyce the Sums subjoined to our Names for the Defence of our Country on this critical Occasion to be by him transmitted either to the Deputy Lieutenant of the District or to the Committee for conducting the Voluntary Contribution at Edin[burg]^h.
